

I believe that the cross-ownership of media will lead to a deterioration in diversity of news sources. Lack of access to diversified information sources will in turn lead to a less-educated American public. Therefore I am oposed to the cross-ownership of media. Thank you for giving me this opportunity.